

Little Willie John "Suffering With The Blues"

Visit "Suffering With The Blues" on MotoLyrics.com

Suffering With The Blues 2:32

Little Willie John

(Conyers, Pemberton)

Recorded Sept 18, 1956 King Single #4989

With Bill Doggett's Combo-Bill Dogget-organ, Billy

Butler & John Faire-guitar

Edwyn Conley-bass, Shep Shepherd-drums, Clifford

Scott-tenor sax.

Transcriber: Awcantor@aol.com

Somewhere, somehow

Sometime, some place

I did someone wrong

And now I'm suffering with the blues

Don't know just where

Or why, or how

I must have been wrong

'Cause now I'm suffering with the blues

Why does your love taunt me

Haunt me through the night?

When I know that you don't, oh want me

If you did you'd be here by my side

Somewhere, somehow

I must have hurt you deep down inside

Or why else would I be here

Suffering with the blu-ooo-ues?

Oh-oh, why else would I be here

Suffering with the blues?

~

Visit Little Willie John page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.