"Wait For Rain"

I think Im talking to myself
Hello stranger, hello friend
Its just a touch of madness
Nothing serious to blame

Were all living in our flawless world
Afraid to fail ashamed by blame
Will I ever be the same if I apologize?

I love you to pieces, yeah
Im sorry, Im sorry
You love me to pieces, yeah

Let me in
Its me again
I cursed you
Let me in
Im sorry
Just make me whole again
Im in pain, Im sorry
I stepped on your identity
If you ignore me
I better wait for rain
Wait for rain

My pain is not mutable
Your voice is overloading me
And my bad burning conscience is killing me

I better wait for rain
Wait for rain
I love you to pieces
You love me to pieces
We better, we better wait for rain
