"Nobody Knows"

I was on a street with a common name i
Prayed for love yeah I even begged I had
A vision of you that carried me through

I was on a street with a common name i
Prayed for love yeah I even begged I had
A vision of you that carried me through

And nobody really knows what I would do
For you nobody really knows how much i
Love you nobody really knows, nobody
Knows nobody knows, nobody knows

I cleared my mind and I turned around
Grateful to the one who had laid me down
I was silent in love pourin down from Above

Like so much rain it fell and pierced my
Brains the trees all alive with their colors
Like the dreams of man I had a vision of
You that carried me through

And nobody really knows what I would do
For you now nobody really knows how Much I love you baby nobody really
Knows, nobody knows nobody knows,
Nobody knows
