Born with your back to the god that spit you out on the riverbed Angry at who? Me? You better back up fool
I bet you took a gun to school too
But now, nobody's takin? your candy
You just keep on livin? this tragedy
To each his own, but I wait for you to take my hand
Cuz we need each other
We gotta love each other

Born with your back to the god that picked you up by the puppy scruff

Angry at who? Me? You better back up fool And be grateful that the real me is always hidin? from you

Now, nobody's takin? your bicycle Maybe somebody should take your microphone To each his own, but

I wait for you to understand that we need each other We gotta love each other (I wait for your to understand) That we need each other (I wait for you to take my hand)

Someone should take your microphone
Someone should leave their live at home
Someone will take your bubble gum
Someone will take your life and run
Always, would she always, get ya always, walky hallways, try again, lie again, don?t let him Don?t let love, now won?t get love, now don?t show love, now don?t know love, now won?t know love I wait for you to take my hand, I wait for you to take my hand (I wait for you to take my hand)

Yeah, cuz we need each other

You know, we gotta love each other Cuz we need each other, yeah

We gotta love, we gotta love each other (It?s gonna be all, alright) (Someone, will take your life and run)

We need each other (It?s gonna be all, alright) Yeah, we gotta love each other (It?s gonna be all, alright) (I wait for you to understand) You know, we need each other (It?s gonna be all, alright) (I wait for you to take my hand)
We gotta love, we gotta love each other
