if i told you he was your brother you'd reminisce then you would go about your day if said you oughta give him some of your water you'd shake your canteen and walk away and the perception taht divides you from him, is a lie for some reason you never asked why this is not a black white world you can't afford to believe in your side this is not a black and white world to be alive i say the colors must swirl and i believe that maybe today we will all get to appreciate the beauty of grey

if i told you she was your mother would you analyze the situation and be gone? if i said you oughta give her some of your water your eyes would light up like the dawn and the perception that divides you from her, is a lie for some reason we never asked why

to be alive i say the colors must swirl

the beauty of grey
the beauty of grey
the beauty of grey

look into your eyes no daylight
new day now

we will appreciate the beauty of grey

to be alive i say the colors must swirl
we will all get appreciate yes we will all get to appreciate

(repeat 8x
