I can't believe I've finally found
The key, the door, the trip
It was all in my mind
Now I'm one with the fools of love
I can't believe I've finally found
The prisoner, the free men
We're all in my mind
Now I'm one with the fools of love

These fools of love are misunderstood
The history is with me here now

I can't believe my cone was shaken
I gave up the ghost
Of everything I was before

Now I'm one with the fools of love

The fools of love are misunderstood
The mystery is with me now

So call me a fool
Call me a fool
Call me a fool

I can't believe my dream is over
I woke up this morning with nothing but light in my eyes
Now I'm one with the fools of love

I can't believe the key, the door, the clouds
That blocked the sun
They were all in my mind
Now I'm one with the fools of love

And the fools of love are misunderstood
The history is with me here now

So call me a fool
Call me a fool
Call me a fool
(the fools of love are misunderstood, the mystery is with me here now)
