I was lookin' everywhere to find you
By and by my intentions were good
I know I don't watch where I am walking
When I know I should
If the night time turns into day
Before I say what I mean
Goddamn all these obstacles before me

Everytime I see your face
It's like heaven opens up her gates
And I fall behind, I just close my eyes
I just close my eyes

If the quicksand of love and deception
Finds a way to become between you and me
Don't fret, I'm gonna cut through the darkness and set us free
And if you wanna just lay with me darlin'
Let the mystery silently speak
Take my tounge, take my lungs if you want
I'll even try not to breathe

Everytime I see your face
Somethin' overwhelms my heart with grace
And I fall behind, I just close my eyes
I just close my eyes
Everytime I see your face
I know you are the one
I know you're more than wonderful
I know you are the one

Everytime I see your face
It's like heaven opens up her gates
And I fall behind, I just close my eyes
I just close my eyes

Everytime I see your face
Somethin' overwhelms my heart with grace
And I fall behind, I just close my eyes
I just close my eyes

Everytime
I see your face
Everytime (x2)
