It came without warning
A love like I ain't ever felt before
She's like my destiny calling
And she's lying there all naked on the floor

And suddenly, out of the blue she's singin'

Oh, baby, let my lovin' ease your pain
Bring your burnin' skin to my river once again
I'll give you life
Oh, baby, let my lovin' ease your pain tonight

She came without warning
Like an angel come from Heaven in the night
Her kiss makes me tremble
So she pulls me close and she holds me, oh so tight

Then suddenly, out of the blue, she starts singin'

Oh, baby, let my lovin' ease your pain
Bring your burnin' skin to my river once again
I'll give you life
Oh, baby, let my lovin' ease your pain

I'll give you life
I'll give you life, yeah
I'll give you life, ooh

Oh, baby, let my lovin' ease your pain
Bring your burnin' skin to my river once again
I'll give you life
Oh, baby, let my lovin' ease your pain, yeah yeah
Bring your burnin' skin to my river
Oh, to my river

Oh, to my river
Oh, to my river
Oh, to my river
