Born with your back to the god that
Spit you out on the riverbed
Angry at who? Me?
You better back up fool
I bet you took a gun to school, too

But now, nobody's takin' your candy
You just keep on livin' this tragedy
La da da da da da, to each his own
But I wait for you to take my hand
'Cause we need each other
We gotta love each other, yeah

Born with your back to the god that
Picked you up by your puppy scruff
Angry at who? Me?
You better back up fool
And be grateful that the real me's always hidin' from you

Now, nobody's takin your bicycle
Maybe somebody should take your microphone
La da da da da da, to each his own
But I wait for you to understand
That we need each other
We gotta love each other
That we need each other

Someone
Just take your microphone
Someone
Should leave the light on
Someone
Take your bubblegum
Someone
Take your life away

Always
Washin' hallways
You're always
Walkin' hallways

Try again
Lie again
Come with me
Whom we love
Whom we love

Now, don't shoot up
Gonna hold on
To whom we love

I wait for you to take my
I wait for you to take my hand

Yeah, 'cause we need each other
You know? We gotta love each other
'Cause we need each other, yeah
We gotta love, gotta love each other

This simple creed of love is all I follow
We need each other
This simple creed of love is all I follow
Hey, we gotta love each other
This simple creed of love is all I follow
You know? We need each other
This simple creed of love is all I follow
Yeah, we gotta love
Gotta love each other
