I'm gatherin' up my friends, today
And those who recognize, the face
It's the vision that changed my mind, from hate to faith
Was as simple as grapes to wine, the sweetest

I'm gatherin' up my friends, today
All these hookers and soldiers and swine, and would be saints
All alone in a room that sparkle in their eye
Play a song that they'll come outside, to see if

Love will overcome
This love will make us men
Love will draw us in
To wipe our tears away

Day that I was so sweetly sung
By wind and the thunder moved by someone
The feelin' of being lived was so strong
The giver became the gift, all one

Day that I was so sweetly sung
The wind seemed to whisper softly, "Oh son!
Don't wait for the seas to part or messiahs to come Don't sit around and waste this chance, to see if"

Love will overcome
(Love will overcome)
If this love will make us men
(Love will make us men)
Love will draw us in
(Love will draw us in)
To take our fear away
Love, oh, love oh yea
(Love)
Love, love, hey, yea
(Love)

Love, this day now
This day that I was so sweetly sung
I know, I know that
Love will overcome

Love will overcome
(Love will overcome)
If this love will make us men
(Love will make us men)
Love will draw us in
(Love will draw us in)
To take our fear away, wipe our tears away
Love!
(Love)
And all my friends are here
(Love)
In the city I sing my song
(Love)
In the face of the hooker, the soldier, the swine
(Love)
I found it, I found it, I found love!
(Love)
Love will, love will, love will (Love, love)
Overcome
(Love)
Overcome
(Love, love, love, love)
Love
