War in me
War overseas
There ain't no difference between

Blood in me
Blood overseas
There ain't no difference between

War in me
War overseas
There ain't no difference between

And blood in me
And blood overseas
There ain't no difference, no difference
No difference between

The chills in your spine are, oh, so sweet
People honor you so high
You've got to defend the stage at your feet
No

Take, take, take my anthem today
Take, take, take my anthem today
Take it away

Hands on me
And hands overseas
There ain't no difference between

And the heart in me
And the heart overseas
There ain't no difference, no difference
No difference between

The chills in your spine are, oh, so sweet
People honor you so high
You've got to defend the stage at your feet
No

Take, take, take my anthem today
Take, take, take my anthem today

Take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away

War in me
War overseas
There ain't no difference between
