Anyone caught in your mystery
Keep it angry
Keep it wispy
I've fallen down
Drunk on your juices
I turn my head
Turn my head
It's aimed at you

Funky temple
Your dress is torn to shreds
Your eyes are crazy
I bowed to save my head
And I can't forget you
But I can't remember
I turn my head
Turn my head
It's aimed at you
Turn my head
Turn my head
It's aimed at you, baby, baby
We came to love you all day
These bastards are leavin'
Somebody's got to stay
Whatever we called you, it's just a name, just a name

Turn my head (Turn my head)
Turn my head
It's aimed at you, yeah
And I turn my head (Turn my head)
Turn my head
It's aimed at you
It's aimed at you
