the baby's not screaming enough the singer's not singing enough ramana's not breathing, to us behold the unsheating, it's love the blade ist not ready to cut it's dull from our thinking, it's rough free love is a wolrd I can't linger too long in free love was just another party

Free love is a knife through the jugular vein son Free love, I can't afford to add up waht you fuckers are made of
