"Holding On"

Visit "Holding On" on motolyrics.com

You always used to say, you'd always be there to see Me laugh and fall down, and dance all around
It's funny how things change.

You're already home,
When I feel so alone
I feel you touch my hand
And I'm closer than you've ever been before

Waving goodbye at the door.

Your smile speaks a thousand words
But your portrait says nothing at all
I've tried to say goodbye, before I found my reason why
I'm better off just holding on to hope.
