I see the glow from the distant shores
I feel you
Ebb and flow, hear the sighs and moans
I feel you

Reach down, hold me now
Feel me as I feel you
Hold, breath into this life
All the life Iâ€™m holding back from you

Your love is written on my soul
A life so simply irresistible
Stained on my heart are words unknown
Youâ€™re so mystical
With the tide goes my life,
I feel you
Intertwined, peace of mind,
I feel you
With every breath I accept,
I feel you
In this state of your embrace,
I feel you

I think I see what youâ€™ve been saying all along
Iâ€™m believing maybe I can play this song
And play it oh so well, and play it oh so well
And play it oh so well
