Shouldn't you have something else to do?
Some plans of war and peace to wage,
Some cosmic pressing issue to tend to?
Shouldn't you talk to someone else instead?
Someone who's maybe more important,
Someone with whom your time is better spent?

You don't only know me,
But you so understand me
So much more than I understand myself

You want to me, You want to know me
When you put your arms around me and hold me tight
You want to know me, You want to know me
And it blows my mind each time I think of the lengths
You went to feel the pain I've felt,
You know me better than I know myself.
Aren't you getting sick and tired of me?
There are people so much more committed
Who show their love for You more lavishly
Wouldn't you be better off without me?
Because my love can never measure up
To the love you've shown me time and time again.

Although you know me
You still want to know me
Despite all my shame and selfish sorrow

Although I know I'm undeserving
And sometimes afraid to show my love
I'll press day by day, to follow all your ways
With hope that one day I'll know you like you know me
