Hey goodbye, I guess I messed up again.
Thought I'd change, but still I'm the way I am.
I know I'll always be the same and I accept the blame.
For the sorry state that I'm in.

Hey goodbye, there's no use in trying.
Cause if I stay, there's no end to the crying.
She deserves way more so I'm walking out the door.
For once I'll be kind and I'll make up her mind.

[Chorus]
She's so sick of me begging forgiveness.
Cause you and I, we both know I did this.
I'm jaded, I'm hated your the only friend of mine.
Please to meet you, hello goodbye.

Hey goodbye, let's open a bottle.
And forget about an empty tomorrow.
It's hard to face the truth, that it's just me and you.
For once I did what's right and I made up her mind.

She's so sick of me begging forgiveness.
Cause you and I, we both know I did this.
I'm jaded, I'm hated your the only friend of mine.
Please to meet you, hello goodbye.

[Bridge]
Oh, I wish I was a better man
Oh, but i'm stuck with goodbye as I am

I'm jaded, I'm hated. Your the only friend of mine.

She's so sick of me begging forgiveness.
Cause you and I, we both know I did this.
I'm jaded, I'm hated your the only friend of mine.
Please to meet you, hello goodbye.

Pleased to meet you, hello goodbye
