(Snoop Talking)

Wassup dog?

Wassup my nigga, how you doing dog?

Man, I'm chilling my nigga

How you livin'?

Shit, I'm livin' it up baby

Really, ohh really, shit

It's all great then

I'm glad to see ya, basically

Yeah, yeah

But on the real though dog

How you living though?

Who me? Shit

(Snoop)

I got two boys and a wife

I live a luxurious life

And I'm respected in this game

Cause I do's the same

Man, look here

Let me spit you something for a second

Cause I see y'all ain't been peeping out my record

I see ladies, I see players, and I see haters

And all you fools who perpetrate us, I'll get back with ya
later

I got a plate of shrimps, laughing with some pimps

Chopping game, while my diamond's swinging

Banking off my gold chain

(Butch Cassidy)

My time has come

The way it's done

No more being strung

Around just like a bun

My dues are paid

Darkness was paved

Let's go find some shade

Then we've got it made

(Snoop)

Money ain't everything dog, but I tell ya

If I didn't have it, i'd be labelled as a felon
So, as long as I breathe, I achieve
Keep god first in my life, I know that's right
And I prevail, whether I do or don't sell
It ain't about that, it's about giving back
We trying to get our live on, while you jib on Let a homie get his sang on, instead of his bang on

(Butch Cassidy)
My life's my friends
And it's gonna be here till the end
It brought me a past
Out the hood, so I know it's gonna last
Down by the sea
Is where all the ladies see me
They tried to flash
Be down, but I had to make a dash

(Snoop)
He went from a bucket to a benz, from some change to some ends
From his homies in the pen, to his balling friends
You know, flossy, flossin, bossy, bossin, boss
But I paid the cost

(Butch Cassidy)
I wanna go
As far as I can go
Just not loco though
Japan and even Tokyo

(Xzibit talking)
Yeah broadcasting live to your radiostation
This is Snoop Dogg
You know what I'm saying
Yeah giving a shout out
Mr X-to-the-Z-Xzibit
To all the homeboys on Dogghouse Records
Like this
