We hate each other 'cause of race and religion [Race and religion]

We hate each other 'cause of class and position

We want to know why is love so hard to come by? [So hard to come by]

Give me a reason why you love so hard to try

The walls between us all must fall

The walls between us all must fall

(This is the result of?)

We hate each other 'cause we dance to different music [Different music]

We hate each other 'cause we think we know it all

We hate each other 'cause that's what our parents taught us [Our parents taught us] (Contrary to the art)

We hate each other for no reason at all

The walls between us all must fall

The walls between us all must fall

(Spacetime mastered it)

We teach our young men how to kill and mame and torture [Torture]

We teach our young men how to make their mothers cry [Make their mothers cry]

We want to know, why is love so hard to come by? [Come by]

Give me the answer, why is love so hard to try? [Love so hard to try]

The walls between us all must fall

The walls between us all must fall

This is how our world breaks down [The walls between us all must fall]

This is how our world breaks down [The walls between us all must fall]

This is how our world breaks down [The walls between us all must fall]

This is how our world breaks down [The walls between us all must fall]

This is how our world breaks down [The walls between

us all must fall]
(I do believe in the, in the sound of heaven or mystery birth, witch I think is what science is talking about)
This is how our world breaks down... [The walls
between us all must fall]
(The attempt to plain weigh, it's ridiculous, fundamentally very little mystery about it)
This is how our world breaks down... [The walls
between us all must fall]
(In spite of pain, in spite of death, in spite of god, the universe, it seems so mysterious, that's all right 'cause there may be coming more)
This is how our world breaks down [The walls between
us all must fall]
This is how our world breaks down [The walls between
us all must fall]
(In spite of pain, in spite of death, in spite of god)
This is how our world breaks down [The walls between
us all must fall]
This is how our world breaks down [The walls between
us all must fall]
This is how our [The walls between us all must fall]
This is how our world [The walls] breaks down [The] world [Walls between all] breaks down
This is how our world [Must fall] [The walls between] our world breaks down
The walls between us [The walls between us] (?, witch I think is alright, so mysterious, that's all right 'cause?)
[The walls between us] The walls between us [The walls
between us all must fall]
