Is it impossible,
To have a life and realise,
It's not a lie?
Is it conceivable to carry on,
And get along, or is it wrong?

Is it acceptable to know a lie,
And hide behind an alibi?
Is it impossible to live without,
A single doubt, do you know how?

Justice in the corner seeking
To revenge the ones that brought us

I can see it in your eyes
Blinded but we're by your side
On and on it's only starting
But I'm never gonna run
Sign me up for a place
I'll be on my way

(Justice in the corner seeking
To revenge the ones that brought us)

Is it impossible,
To have a life and realise,
It's not a lie?
Is it conceivable to carry on,
And get along, or is it wrong?
Is it impossible (impossible),
Is it impossible?

I can see it in your eyes
Blinded but we're by your side
On and on it's only starting
But I'm never gonna run
Sign me up for a place
I'll be on my way
Sign me up for a place
I'll be on my way
Yeah, sign me up for a place
I'll be on my way.
