I've been thinking of going away
Somewhere that I can find a new day
Everybody's talking about this new place
Where no one remembers your face

Where they don't wanna know
About the things you've done,
They don't wanna know
About the damage done.
Everyone is going down.

Run away, run away, to nowhere town
We're gonna go where we won't be found
Winners always win, sinners always sin

Run away, run away, to nowhere town
We're gonna go where we won't be found
The winners always win, the sinners always sin

We're on our way to nowhere,
We're on our way to nowhere.

I heard you've been living a lie
If it's true then I won't ask why
Won't ask why

'Cause they don't wanna know about the things you've done,
They don't wanna know about the damage done,
Everyone is going down.

Run away, run away to nowhere town
We're gonna go where we won't be found
The winners always win, the sinners always sin

Run away, run away to nowhere town
We're gonna go where we won't be found
The winners always win, the sinners always sin

We're on our way
We're on our way to nowhere

We're on our way
We're on our way to nowhere

Run away, run away to nowhere town
We're gonna go where we won't be found
The winners always win, the sinners always

Run away, run away
Run away, run away
Sinners always sin
Winners always Sinners always
Winners always sin
