I don't know enough about the things you do
I don't know enough to say I really know you

But I really fell in love with you

And if you knew

What would you do?

I can tell a lot by the things you wear
I can tell you're gonna be a millionaire

But i really fell in love with you

And if you knew
What would you do?

I've stopped myself from trying i shoulda talk to you

And now inside i'm dying

What would you do?

I don't know enough about the things you do
I don't know enough to say I really know you
But I really fell in love with you

And if you knew

What would you do?

Alright

I've stopped myself from trying i shoulda talk to you
And now inside i'm dying

What would you do?

I don't know enough about the things you do

I don't know enough to say I really know you

But I really fell in love with you

And if you knew
What would you do?

What would you do?
What would you do?

What would you do?
