Awakening
Has taken place in me
Breathe in the newness of life
Drink freely new wine

Awaken from stagnant
Passiveness, broke free
Constrictive casualness
The dawn has come

We must move on
Steadfast, faithfulness
Put off laziness
Wake up, wake up

Awaken from sleep
Open your eyes, receive

Healed of crippling lethargy
Our spirits no longer reek of sleep
Through prayer we've entered, yeah
In the throne room, the will of God

Awaken from sleep
Open your eyes, receive

Awaken from stagnant, broke free
The dawn has come

We must move on
Steadfast
Put off casual
Wake up, wake up
