Incidental consequences
Growing larger by the second
The things I've said, things I've done
Out of ignorance, I cursed the son

Passive resistance
Passive resistance

Sown in ignorance, if I had known the path I took
I could have told the stupid links to past mistakes
Take a flying leap into your fate
I was wrong for thinking I could not prevail

I was wrong, I was wrong, I was wrong, I was wrong
I was wrong for thinking I could not prevail
Kept my mouth shut for too long
This is not what I agreed upon

Passive resistance
Passive resistance

Believed the lies I can't repeat
This possession of hatred, defeat

Passive resistance
Passive resistance

Sown in ignorance, if I'd had known the path I took
I could have told the stupid links to past mistakes
Take a flying leap into your fate, into your fate
I was wrong for thinking I could not prevail
