Deny, the thing that you were,
you're alone can you feel it?
Defy, the way of the world,
You've trapped the past
will you seal it?

Wake up, wake up from the lie
(Are you ready to breathe?)
Wake up, wake up from the lie
(Are you ready to believe?)
Are you ready to breathe?
Believe. Are you ready to be received?

Surprise! As keen as you were,
you were blind to the feeling.
To crush, the fear that you must live with your feet on the ceiling.

Numb from all the knowledge
and this fear is taking over,
and then you're numb from all the knowledge
and this fear is taking over.
