On your throne,
unwilling to make amends
and you can't hold your toungue Not willing to take all the shit that you say to me

I'm willing to beat you
Down, down you go
where you'll pretend
I never said,
"I'm willing to beat you"

On your own,
with little or nothing to say and you can't hold your own
Not willing to take all
the shit that you say to me

I'm willing to beat you
Down, down you go
where you'll pretend
I never said,
"I'm willing to beat you"

Terri maa ki kassam, tereke itna marunga

No one can tell to me to do, or that these are the things that I should,
even if I would..
and I should..
