Take down
Cast out what you know
Turn around
Your life's been bought and sold
You've lost your footing
still we hear you scream

No sound
To find yourself alone
What now?
There's no one left to hold
You've lost your footing
still we hear you scream

Who loves you now?
When tear drop often stain your eyes
Who loves you now?
Cause when the feeling is gone
Then nothing remains in your life

Drive down
When giving up is old
What now
The fire in you's cold
You've come all this way
just to hear me scream

Lay down
Do just what you're told
Stay down
With you they broke the mold
You've come all this way
just to hear me scream
