A rented house can hold
no home
No memories
You're brought up proud but you can't run from your family tree
You're spending all this time alone
it's them or me..

I wanted..
Something More
than you could give to me

Take all the promises
you run from
try hard to leave
make up the tales
of how we won
you live out your dream You're spending all this
time alone
it's them or me..

It's me that you run from,
from me that you hide..
I've got a lot to say..
