I was doing my laundry, baby
I thought I'd do my new jeans too
Yeah, I was doing my laundry
I threw my new blue jeans in too

And when the spin and rinse was over
Every single thing in there was blue

Well, blue on my bedsheets
To wraparound like doom
Blue on my sweatshirt
Blue fruit of the looms

I went to the laundry
I did what you're never supposed to do
I washed a brand new pair of Levi's
Every single thing in there was blue, I had the blues

You see, turned my reds to purple
Yellows gone to green
Even all the browns and grays
Got blue that can't be see

Yeah, the blues got me surrounded
No matter which outfit I choose
Because I just went to the laundry
And got the brand new pair of Levi blues
