Angel I just can think about you in my dreams
You came from heaven only to stay with me.
Now I have a new life, cos I knew the true love
I see your face all the time in my mind.
I hope your love be deeper than the sea
And you be mine for all eternity.
Angel you are making me feel high
Iâ'm flying through the sky traveling into my mind.

Angel you are living into my heart
And the sky is waiting for us to fly

High over the sea, fly until the moon
We can touch the stars, travel to mars.
Fly among the mountains, reach our dreams

Search for the fountain of the pure life.

Angel I know Iâ'm dreaming, Iâ'm afraid of opening
my eyes
And lose all the feelings that youâ've put into my mind.

Angel I know, that is time to go
But I wonâ't forget anything that we passed.

Fly Angel, fly free. Iâ'm waiting to be Close to you...In another life.
