since i met you
the day before my faith has gone
don't think i'm wrong
every single thing i do
i'm not anybody's fool
don't complain
i was stabbed in the rain
not use with pain
but you powered yourself
by using ya sense
jumping over the fence
just to rescue me

i'm falling down
i'm hitting the ground
and i can't resist the blood
and dropped down to the flood
i'm reaching up
no limit stops
as the road i dropped
nothing i miss it
and i'm falling to pieces

pieces pieces pieces
falling to pieces
you know i'm not the only one who felt the same way no chance to stop me now i'm gonna cry anyway
let it fly
atleast you've tried
but still you tried to hold my hand but slipped and can't understand

falling down
hitting ground
shaking up
limit stops
and i still can't find my dreams and i still can't believe than it seems i can't write with my diary cos i know i've been praying for misery my friends and i are on you but you can call us psychos
but we won't care anyway
there's nothing else to say
