well i'm not gonna tell you
she lost her faith
from falling from grace somebody stop her
make the same mistakes all over again
somehow she's lonely
that she begs for me
she have to many problems
too many problems

she's losing her mind
she got a life
in the outside world
she needs some love
someone above
everything she wanted
while she's always forgotten
her father called her
it's gonna be alright
but forgot about her
all over again

well figure that one on your own losing someone she loves they don't want her around to lose another life
what's wrong with them now they're losing her somehow they don't know where she belongs and she's always wrong

she got a life
in the outside world

but forgot about her

the things she can't find she'd make up her mind
she's fallen right now
from the sky she loves
people can't take
all her mistakes
they want a perfect grace yea
