

Livores Mortis

"I Washed My Face In The Morning Dew"

Visit "I Washed My Face In The Morning Dew" on MotoLyrics.com

The first strange town I was ever in the county was hangin' a man Nobody cared if he lived or died and I just didn't understand
So I washed my face in the morning dew bathed my soul in the sun Washed my face in the morning dew and kept on moving along

The second strange town I was in they were laughin' at a poor crippled man Begging for nickels and dimes on the street and I just didn't understand
So I washed my face in the morning dew...

The third strange town that I was in was settled peaceful and nice
The rich got richer and the poor got poorer and to me it just didn't seem right
So I washed my face in the morning dew...

Someday times are bound to change it can't be very far And each injustice I have seen will come before the bar Then I'll wash my face in the morning dew bathe my soul in the sun
Wash my face in the morning dew and my journey will be done
Then I'll wash my face in the morning dew...

Visit Livores Mortis page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.