Hear the wind how sad it's blowing it must know you'll soon be going
What to do to free you off me I've no hold when you don't love me
Set you free I just don't know how all I know I'll be alone now Happy you no more pretending sadness mine for love
is ending
Now it's done the words are spoken one heart's free for one heart's broken Better off that's what they told me sorry words do not console me
I know he'll bring end to sorrow tears I've cried gave new tomorrow
Happy you no more pretending sadness mine for love
is ending
