when you open your eyes
it blows you away
from the wind you wouldn't stay i've been seeing that many times when people are innocent or does their crime don't you worry anyway
you don't know what to say i stare at the clouds that's bursting up feelings i got that cannot stop

HEY!
since the lifetime is here
i know its near
the flag is wavin
the shore is shakin
whether you're big or small
it doesn't count after all
don't you realize
open your eyes

did you ever know that's someone is watching over you did you ever know that's someone knows what to do while the flags are waving beautifully up the sky letting the insects and fireflies fly did you ever know what goes with this when it's the part you know or you missed did you even know that someone knows everything that somewhere to go

HEY!
i know its near
the flag is wavin
don't you realize
open your eyes
HEY!

the flag is wavin
don't you realize
open your eyes

so open your eyes
let it pass by the national anthem is singing so gently
don't you dare cry
see how i got the way i know where do i go

(guitar solo)

HEY!

HEY!

HEY!
