You're just like every other man you don't care a bit bout what I think or who I am You just see the outside me and cause I'm looking well
You want me to be yours for show and tell Just like some little kid in a nursery school that takes a pretty toy
You'd like to take me on the town and show me up to the boys
I wanted you to be above all the child like games most men play in the name of love But I've heard from lots of girls that you once caught a hell
They all say that you love to show and tell Just like some little kid in a nursery school that takes a
You'd like to take me on the town and show me up to
the boys
Then when the newness starts to fade
You'll be needing some new plaything to put on parade That's why I am turning down upon them games you sell
I can't see me yours for show and tell I can't see me yours for show and tell
