don't you understand
give me your hand
stop calling me names
i can't take all the blames you don't even know how now you know now
you don't understand
you can't be on demand

you crap me
you lose me
you do anything just for me
but you lost me
you kissed me
but you never think about this
i hate you now
is it over now
you crap me
i don't think it's working out

don't you misunderstood don't you put yourself in a mood you're not very good don't belong in Hollywood
oh no
i think i'm losing it
i think i got the hit
but you won't fit
you hate me now

you lose me
you do anything just for me
but you lost me
i hate you now
is it over now

you lose me
you do anything just for me
but you lost me

don't make me understand staring at the palm of your hand don't you freak me
don't you lick me
don't you speak at me
don't you figure out all the things i say it's not all my way

you crap me
you lose me
but you lost me
