Tonight the moon is a fingernail

Glowing for you, on a wire, as you set sail

The sea a dream, laid out for you

The sea a dream, laid out for you

Tonight we'll meet on a silver beach

Dancing we'll be, under the beam

The sands a dream, laid out for you

The sands a dream, laid out for you

Tonight we'll leave on gilded wings

Soaring we'll be o'er limbs and leaves

The winds a dream, laid out for you

The winds a dream, laid out for you
