(performed on a number of radio broadcasts and at many live shows)

All the people we all know
Are wasted away on a holiday
Everywhere these people go
They're wasted away
There's nothing to borrow
Wasted today, they're wasted tomorrow
And I wouldn't want it from you
And I wouldn't take it anyhow

I just want to borrow time and to give my body peace of mind

All the people we all know
Are wasted away on a holiday
Everywhere my buddies go
They're wasted away
Their eyes are like pinholes
Nothing to say, we're acting like assholes
