Ohhhhhh

This is the end of the line
I've clearly read every sign
The way you glance at me
Indifferently
And you take your hand from mine

This is the end of the line
How could I ever define (define) How helpless I've become
I feel like some distorted valentine

Remember in the beginning your winning ways excited me and all the while I was certain that we too had found a love that calms just to a few birds

We've reached the end of the line
I hope your dreams turn out fine
I'm awfully tired and so I guess I'll go Although its only nine

This is the end of the line
This is the end of the line
This is the end of the line
Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
