[Juicy J]

People always asking bout Project Pat
Did he get ten years, or did he time go flat
Well ima tell you like this, its a baller battle
Try to prosecute a nigga, probably taller than Shaq
Me and my brother been down, since the days a rap
Hangin out Cypress Garden tryin to sell the crack Can't no money or no bitch can relate to that Throught he good and the bad ima have his back
So ima tell you young niggaz in the streets today
That be standing on the block, smoke chokin that hay
The Police, Prosecutors are the enemies
Dont get caught up in that cross yo decsion you make
If I could turn back the hands of time, I would
And tell my big brother the gun ain't no good
He got one strike a felon, thats good

[Lord Infamous]

Its the heavyweight Champion chip of rap
I hope you did all your sit ups and ran your laps
Cause I'm ready for the whole damn ten round bout
Throw a jab left, up, right, to the map
And I don't think your boys gonna help you this time
Cause you done fucked around with the roll down kind
Got get a bump and grind gotta bump me the pine
Gotta nine to your spine, yo I gotta get mine
With that in mind, yo for what I am highly trained
Insane mane, and I gotta very good aim
So bring yo bandaids and your pain killers
We foe killer, type of niggaz
Best believe we keepin you injured
Even worse then you in pictures
So get buck if you really think you want to Best believe Lord is gonna come back and haunt you

[Lil Wyte]

Calls it quits when you talk cause you spoke my name
Gotta switch when you walk, lookin like you a dame

Cause lma hussler on my bumpin for my fortune and

Until the center of attention, and your momma you

And I'm the one bringing thunder to this sky you

Fuck around wit a mugger and Ill then make you wonder
What happened to this little craker it was just marijuana
His shoes just got a little bigger, I just gonna warn you
That he was creepin from the slab, where the gat is
