You've been searching the world to find true love
Looking in all the wrong places
When all of the time you've been blind to love
It's plain as the nose on your faces

It's here, it's now, open your eyes and see it
Right here, right now, open your eyes to love

You've been down on yourself thinking something's wrong
Wondering why love has never found you
Don't you know it's been right here all along
If only you look around you

It's here, it's now, open your eyes and see it
Right here, right now, open your eyes to love

Love has been right by your side
But, oh so close that you couldn't see
If love could speak, it would shout to the sky
I've always been here and I always will be...

I'm here, I'm now, open your eyes and see me,
Right here, right now, open your eyes to love.

Open your eyes...
Open your eyes to love.
Open your heart to love.
