Never gonna be in movies
Except in a front row seat
Never gonna be the raving beauty
My momma thought I'd be Never gonna write that novel
Never be a homecoming queen
Never gonna be a supermodel
On the cover of a magazine

But all these things don't matter in the light of things to come
'cause baby, you are my moon and I am your sun, oh!

You make me feel like a star, oh baby
You say stay, baby stay
Just the way you are
And tell me girl you're fine
And you will shine
Forever in my heart
That's why you, yeah you
You make me feel like a star.

Maybe I'm not the girl next door
Who waves at you and smiles
Maybe I'm not a party girl
But don't I drive you wild
Baby, the way you see me
Is the way that it should be Feelin' like I'm something special
Seven days a week

And the only thing that matters when the day is done
Is that you are my moon, and I am your sun, oh!
You make me feel like a star, oh baby
You say stay, baby stay
Just the way you are
And tell me girl, you're f ine
And you will shine
Forever in my heart
That's why you, yeah you

You make me feel like
Everyday's my birthday
Every night's a dream
Oh, and when you kiss me
I melt just like ice cream.

Never gonna be a Charlie's Angel
Never gonna be a saint
But you love me for all I am
And everything I ain't

You make me feel like a star, oh baby
Just the way you are
And you will shine
Forever in my heart
That's why you, yeah you
You make me feel like a star.

You make me feel like a star
Shinin' bright in your eyes
And I'll always be your life
And I'll always be your light
