

Lizzie West

"The Day We Met"

Visit "The Day We Met" on MotoLyrics.com

i'm calling back
unfold these arms
the love we had
is still ours
i am holding
we will walk
arms unfolding
we will walk

chorus:
where the pumpkin
colored trees
are turning red
i love you like
i loved you
the day we met

falling hands
you are still here
you understand
and you love me
seeing you
it's all okay
walk with me
you say

where our house
is humble you will take me to our bed
well i love you
like i loved you
the day we met

well, hallelujah
how do you do
i sure am fine
i will meet you
across the border
through the chips
we cashed all of them are dimes

but i know it
doesn't matter
'cause anyway
we will be fine
oh honey it doesn't matter, we've got the dog and the cats
by the fireside

chorus:

lying here beside me
you sweetly hold my head, you tell me
i love you like
i loved you,
i love you like
i loved you
well i love you
like i loved you
i love you like
i loved you,
i love you like
i loved you
well i love you
like i loved you
i loved you like
i loved you
the day we met

Visit Lizzie West page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.