Lizzy Borden
"Master Of Disguise"

In this mask engraved I'm under a masquerade of thunder
Callling out you wonder who I am
I can hear you screaming to the bells I'm ringing
Pardon me you're dreaming I'm your nightmare's end
I'm a lost child facing a confrontation
I'm just a figment of your imagination
I'm a snake in the grass offering temptation
I'm the master of disguise
I can see you watching from the corner of my eyes
I'm the master of disguise
And I'm dressed to kill tonight
In a blaze of glory I'm another story told
In a schizophrenic scene
I'm a mad creation dressed in black mutation yeah
I'm every mother's dream
I'm a lost child facing a confrontation
I'm just a figment of your imagination
I'm a snake in the grass offering temptation
I'm the master of disguise
I can see you watching from the corner of my eyes
I'm the master of disguise
And I'm dressed to kill tonight
[Lead Break]
I'm the living image cast a shadow blackened passed
The mirror of our lies
In this theatre of cruelty obscurely under wraps
The curtain will arise yeah
I'm the master of disguise
I can see you watching from the corner of my eyes
(Corner of my eyes)
I'm the master of disguise
And I'm dressed to kill tonight
I'm the master of disguise
I'm the wolf in a pack of lies
I'm the master of disguise
I'm a thief in the night
I'm the master of disguise
I can read between the lines
I'm the hope that you can't find
I'm the lie that you hold inside
I'm the love you can't confess

I'm the hate you must supress
I'm your deepest fantasy
I'm the price tag when it's free
I'm the wind that trace your steps
I'm the cherries on your breath
I'm the murder at your death
I'm the whiskey when your life's a mess
I'm the master of disguise
I'm the master of disguise
I'm the master of disguise
I'm the master of disguise
