I seen this girl, walkin' down the block
I said, "Wait"
"Yo baby, you wanna come to my crib?"
"Have some donuts and milk?"
"Listen to a pop tune maybe?"

Please, be his ex and be my bride
Don't blame it on yourself, sweet thing, you tried
Love you claimed to share just wasn't there
You're too good for that and it wasn't fair

Love's taken its toll, your heart he stole
You was fooled by the face of a phoney role
But I'll take up the slack, support you, baby
Now, the knight in shiny armor can only be me

I cry out your name as you hold his hand
If you're not mine soon, girl, my soul is damned
I'm lookin' out the window at the stormy rain
And the rush of the water makes my eyes drain

All alone in the room and it's makin' me sad
Fantasize of the love we could have had
'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more

I pour wine for two, even though it's just me
I tried to reach you but blind men don't see
Your man is the devil but he gave you a ring
So you believe you saw an innocent angel sing

You're the type that ignores the destiny of two
It's not Romeo and Juliet, it's me and you
You're bein' handicapped by a Don Juan rap
You can hope I disappear, girl, but I'll be back

'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more
Yes girl, I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more

The time has come, the decision's yours

This super love story ain't workin' no more
Can't you understand that my love spans
Higher and further than any man's?

You're lookin' a gift horse right in the mouth
This time hear me out, I don't care if you pout
You're my only desire, I fight to the death
And I'ma scream your name when I breathe my last breath

Ain't gettin' on my knees but I'm oh so close
To our love I toast, all he does is boast
'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more

A knock on the door and a tap on the glass
Tells me you see it my way at last
You used to reject me, now you wanna kiss me
He called you up and said, "Yo baby, why you diss me?"

Meanwhile made romance on the sea shore
You want more of what you used to ignore
During this love affair, girl, it gets steamy
Three nights in a row, and you still wanna see me

Make love at night, coffee in the morn'
I be the only blanket that's keepin' you warm
'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more

I hoot in the mornin' to the crack of sunlight
But my agony continues till it reaches night
Sweet image of your face appears on the wall
And the scene is so eerie I run through the hall

I look at the sky, then I search for the moon
Realize it's 3 o'clock in the afternoon
So I dress to impress, exit the house
Go up to the school and watch the kids come out

In the middle of the court yard there you stand
With the man who's deceivin' ya, holdin' your hand
'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more

You're the goddess of light, the queen of seduction
You won't get used if you follow my instructions
Your scam my hand, feel the sweat on my palm
Make love to a man and not a cheap Don Juan

And that'll be eroticism, highs die down
You will find your best friend finally is found
I caress ya at night like a virgin in white
'Cos the new world I found is oh, so tight

And tender and young, soft and wet
It's hotter than any fantasy could get
'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more

I can give you more
Girl, I can give you more
I can give you more
'Cos I never met anyone like you before
And I can give you more
