i don't want no party girl, sneaking over time just need me someone, who can cool it down who make me feel like love is easy if love is all you need, then let me hear you say I need it, can't live without it can't play the game no more, so I'm doin' somethin' bout it
and I want it, yeaah I'm on it searching for invite to find the girl for me see, I've been so many places but I can't find the one who's for me when I fall in love, I wonder experienced so many relations but still I haven't found what i need it's like I'm going under, it's so hard to breathe lord I'm tired of losin, I pray you send an angel down, to come and change my life around love is so confusin, can't seem to find a silent ground will somebody please show me how

I need it, can't live without it
bout it
and I want it, yeaah I'm on it searching for invite to find the girl for me, yeeeah !
