This one goes out to that special girl
You know who you are
There is so many things I like about you
So, here's just a few, listen

At 4 in the morning, if I need some loving
I know I can call on you (if you come running) Don't have to stress to think about another, brother getting down on you
Cuz you know (what you got here)
If you know (I ain't going nowhere)
If you know (how to keep your boy happy)
There's just the little things you do

Its the way you let your head down when its about to go down
And you look at me (shawty I love it)
The way you call my momma just to check up on her,
you care about family (shawty I love it)
The way we kick it like bestfriends you don't be tripping, damn you're so cool (shawty I love it)
Yes it all simple but true, its the things that I like about
you

Don't want another girl on your spot
I never met one who could keep me on lock
And even though you're fine, its all about your mind
It keeps me into you, way past with you
If you know (what you got here)
If you know (I ain't going nowhere)
If you know (how to keep your boy happy)
There's just the little things you do

Its the way you let your head down when its about to go
down
And you look at me (shawty I love it)
The way you call my momma just to check up on her,
you care about family (shawty I love it)
The way we kick it like best-friends you don't be tripping, damn you're so cool (shawty I love it)
Yes it all simple but true, its the things that I like about
you

Girly (feels so good)
When I (be with you)
I can't lie (you got me baby)
And I don't care who sees it
Girl please believe it
You are the flyest thing

Its the way you let your head down when its about to go
down
And you look at me (shawty I love it)
The way you call my momma just to check up on her,
you care about family (shawty I love it)
The way we kick it like best-friends you don't be tripping, damn you're so cool (shawty I love it)
Yes it all simple but true, its the things that I like about
you
