Darkness fills your world Laying down your spirit
No matter how loud you scream out No one's seems to hear

Looking for some comfort
In your times of turbulence Something that will ease the hurt again
oh oh

(And you say that)
You'll never find, You'll never find someone (you say that)
you don't believe in love
When you're all alone and need someone and you're lonely
Or whenever you feel like you're lost and you need finding,
Keep your head up towards the sky and keep on shining
And if there ever comes a time, doubt creeps in your mind
Think of me, Think of me ,Think of me

You're heart is shattered in pieces
And you need repair You're bed is cold and empty Cause' no one is sleeping there

Your faith is shaking cause' you're awakin' Wishin' someone holds you near Just close your eyes, and say my name I swear you'll feel me there

(And you say that)
(you say that)
When you're all alone and need someone and you're

finding,
Keep your head up towards the sky and keep on
shining
And if there ever comes a time, doubt creeps in your mind
Think of me, Think of me,

Pause*

(And you say that)
(you say that) you don't believe in love (oh oh)
When you're all alone and need someone and you're
lonely
finding,
And if there ever comes a time, doubt creeps in your mind
