

Lloyd Cole & The Commotions

"2CV"

Visit "2CV" on MotoLyrics.com

She drove her mother's car, 'twas a 2cv
I was most impressed by her casual dress
I was most impressed
Inside her rented room colored deepest blue
I suppose we found some kind of happiness
To fill the emptiness
We were simply wasting precious time
Hiding from the cruelest summer sky

She took her mother's car to get away from me
Heaven knows that I, I can sympathize
Oh I can sympathize
For we were never close if the truth were told
All we ever shared was a taste in clothes
Oh we were never close
We were simply losing everything
Underneath the cruelest london sun

We were simply wasting precious time
We were simply wasting precious time
We were simply wasting precious time

Visit Lloyd Cole & The Commotions page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.